Virginia Beach, Va. (March 5, 2008) -- The Founders Inn and Spa, in the spirit of spring extravagance and Easter fun, offers brunch at Swan Terrace, Sunday, March 23 from 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. All children attending the brunch who are 12 and under will visit with the 'ole Whiskered One and search for Easter eggs in the Colonial Gardens. The first egg hunt begins at 10:30 a.m., the other begins at 1:30 p.m., weather permitting.

Tony Loos, Director of Food and Beverage, designed the multi-tiered menu to delight both adults and children. "My staff and I are pleased to present this luxurious yet traditional menu, fashioned to satisfy and entrance the appetites of everyone in the family."

The breakfast portion of the brunch features scrambled eggs with spring vegetables and cheese, biscuits with country gravy and made-to-order omelets. Guests will enjoy choosing from an array of fresh, delicate salads such as lemon-scented couscous and Caesar salad, and will sample from the fascinating display of regional and international cheeses. Entrees include Boston crusted cod with lemon thyme cream sauce, chicken supreme with wild mushrooms and Burgundy, slow-roasted prime rib and steamed vegetable m \acute{e} lange. Roasted leg of lamb and delicious Grand Marnier glazed ham are at the center of the carvery.

Kids will gain egg hunting energy with gourmet children's favorites: macaroni and creamy cheese, crispy chicken nuggets and tater tots. The pastry chef presents to the most discerning of palates an assortment of pies, tortes and pastries, including pumpkin pie and apple peach crumble.

Reservations are required. Call (757) 366-5700.
